Nurse: Hello, kidney transplantation.

Investigator: Hello.

Nurse: Hello?

Investigator: Is this the kidney transplant department? I’m calling from another province. Hello!

Nurse: How can I help you?

Investigator: I’ve that heard the wait time for kidney transplantation in your hospital would be a little bit shorter [than that of the other hospitals]. How can I be put on your waiting list?

Nurse: Please wait a moment!

[Switched to a different person]

Doctor: Hello!

Investigator: Hello!

Doctor: Hello!

Investigator: Hello! I was asking, how can a patient from another province to be put on your hospital’s [donor] waiting list?

Doctor: Where are you from?

Investigator: Anhui Medical University.

Doctor: Anhui Medical University, then you’ve already done the [tissue] typing, etc., right?

Investigator: [We did,] since this is also a Grade A tertiary hospital. However, after doing [all the checkups], there were so many people waiting [for organs], and their hospital didn’t do many cases. I’ve heard that they had a meeting with one director in your hospital, and that your hospital did over 200 cases of kidney transplantation last year, is that correct?

Doctor: Yes. We did more than 300 cases [of kidney transplantation last year]. Well, I don't want to talk about that.

Investigator: Well, I was told that maybe your hospital would have more opportunities. They told us to come here, to see if it's possible to do it. So...

Doctor: Yes. No problem. You can come and get registered someday.

Investigator: Good, from Monday to Friday?

Doctor: Yes, from Monday to Friday.

Investigator: As long as during your business hours, right?

Doctor: Yes, anytime. You don't have to register with the outpatient service. You can directly go to our ward, which is located on the 19th floor of Building 1.

Investigator: OK. I know, that patient already told me how to get to your [ward].

Doctor: Yes. No need to register [with the outpatient service].

Investigator: They did few in Anhui Medical University this year. How about your hospital? Have you done as many [cases] as last year?

Doctor: We already did more than 100 cases this year, more than 100 cases this year.

Investigator: Oh, more than 100 cases. Okay. I have some idea now. Okay, in due course, I will directly come to your hospital then. Which doctor should I talk to?

Doctor: Ok, just come.

Investigator: Okay. Your ward beds are quite in short supply, right?

Doctor: Right.

Investigator: Do you have a special kidney transplant ward or [the ward beds] are mixed with the [ones of] the urinary surgery department?

Doctor: We have a special kidney transplant ward.

Investigator: Well, how many beds are there in your kidney transplant ward?

Doctor: We have more than 50 beds.

Investigator: More than 50 sheets?

Doctor: Yes. More than 50 beds.

Investigator: Okay, then I'll let my family members know, after consulting with you...
