Phone Investigation Recording

Red Cross Staff: Hello.

Investigator: Hi, Hello. [Red Cross: Hello.] Is this the Nantong City Red Cross?

Red Cross Staff: Yeah, who is calling?

Investigator: Oh, I also work for a hospital, a hospital in northern China. I’d like to find out some info about your donated organs. Do you use them only locally? Could you allocate your surplus organs to other hospitals?

Red Cross Staff: We don’t have any. We...to be specific, there is mainly an Organ Coordination Committee, which makes decisions. We do very little here. In all these years, we’ve only handled a couple of cases. We have had few donations here. Uh, ok? And all [donation cases] involved people from the provincial government.

Investigator: Oh, not so many donations, right? For example, for the whole year last year [Red Cross: Yeah, that’s right.], how many donations did you receive?

Red Cross Staff: Not only last year, for all these years, the total number [of donated organs that we’ve received] is only two. There is few, very, very few [donation]. Hum, uh, ok? Bye!
