2. [Investigator: So the organs of those 30 kidney transplants performed in July didn't all come from you?] Staff on duty: These? No, no.
3. “[We've received] over 40 cases [of donated organs this year].”

Phone Investigation Recording

Staff on duty: Hello.

Investigator: Oh, hi. Is this the Guilin City Red Cross?

Staff on duty: Yes, it is.

Investigator: Oh, I have a question, that is, you've been doing a good job in terms of receiving organ donations, and [your story] must have been featured in newspapers. So, I'd like to know how you did the promotion to achieve such a wonderful result.

Staff on duty: Uh..Where are you calling from?

Investigator: Uh, I'm calling from Chengdu.

Staff on duty: Chengdu, Uh, Chengdu...Where in Chengdu?

Investigation: Let me explain. I was a doctor, but I'm retired. Now I want to become a volunteer. Since a professor of the Third Military Medical University often comes to Guilin to perform surgeries, he told me that there are relatively more transplant operations here. He does transplant operations at the No. 181 Hospital. He has performed a lot in the No. 181 Hospital. He said that they got their donor organs from the Red Cross donations, so I become very interested.

Staff on duty: You can't say that we...we just... we participated as a witness.

Investigator: Oh, I see, so you...

Staff on duty: That's right. Speaking of our Red Cross, we only have several staff members. To be frank with you, we just have a total of 5-6 people in the Guilin City Red Cross, and we also need to...This organ donation is only one of our jobs, not all of our jobs.

Investigator: Uh, this professor said that they did a lot here. For example, in July, they performed over 30 kidney transplants. Then I thought, Oh, they really did a good job, so I'd like to find out. Because the professor told me, the organs might all come from Red Cross donations, so I think..

Staff on duty: These? No, no.

Investigator: Oh, so after I heard the professor's words, I'd like to call you and find out more about your situation. Because he comes here quite often, as he travels to the No. 181 Hospital very often. He talks to me about the situation here. So the organs of those 30 kidney transplants performed in July didn't all come from you?

Staff on duty: No, no, no. Not all from us.

Investigator: Oh, oh, then I understand, oh, now I understand.

Investigator: Uh, right, right, so you received several dozen more donated organs this year?

Attendance: Uh, Over 40 cases.

Investigator: Oh, now I see, I know now, thank you. Thanks for the explanation.

Staff on duty: Ok, all right.

Investigator: Goodbye.
