Investigator: Hello, hey, hello, are you Director Zhang?

Director Zhang: Yes.

Investigator: Hello. You are ~

Director Zhang: Yes, go ahead.

Investigator: Are you Director Zhang in Pediatric Surgery? Director Zhang Haiyu? Hey, how are you?

Director Zhang: Yes, who is that?

Investigator: Can you hear me clearly?

Director Zhang: Ah?

Investigator: Ah, I saw that you have a public service announcement. People can sign up this June, for kids, to do liver transplantation.

If one were selected among the ten (free ones), can we do it this June?

Director Zhang: It is for sure, the first ten (surgeries) are indeed for free.

Investigator: For sure...

Director Zhang: Oh, yes, the first ten (surgeries) are free.

Investigator: Oh, because now, some PSAs, some and some are not true, so I just want to ask.

Director Zhang: This is true, our hospital does have this offer, this is not fake. I assure you.

Investigator: Ah, this is true, not fake.

Director Zhang: No, you, that, you should do this, you should come here first with your child to have a look.

Investigator: OK.

Director Zhang: You can come to Pediatric Surgery division. Yes, you can...

Investigator: Let's just say that we have to do it. How long will it take for these ten children to finish surgeries, that is, how long do they have to wait?

Director Zhang: But you won't need to wait too long, because our DCDs (Donation After Cardiac Death) are plenty.

Investigator: Oh, then, now for your liver transplantation. Do we usually do plenty? For this liver transplantation?

Director Zhang: Ah, there are many surgeries for adults. So, it extends to kids. The first ten surgeries are for free.

Investigator: Oh, oh, I see. However, that is, there are many sources of donors in this hospital, like you said?

Director Zhang: Yes, yes. Exactly.

Investigator: Let's say the liver transplant. Usually we do many surgeries for adults, right? That's why ...

Director Zhang: A lot.

Investigator: So we have to have the qualification...

Director Zhang: Right. Do more than 200 cases a year.

Investigator: Do you mean the liver transplant or kidney...

Director Zhang: Do more than 200 cases a year!

Director Zhang: Ah, OK.

Investigator: Ah, Director Zhang. Ha ha. Thank you, goodbye!
