Phone Investigation Recording

Nurse: Hello?

Investigator: Hey, greetings.

Nurse: Hello?

Investigator: Is this the Beijing Armed Police Hospital's Kidney Transplantation (Department)?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Ah, then can I ask, just did the patients wait for a long time for a kidney transplant in the past?

Nurse: Oh, not very long.

Investigator: This year, did you do many kidney transplantation operations? This year?

Nurse: Quite a lot.

Investigator: Did... Because I know each year you do about 500 to 600 cases. This year is about the same?

Nurse: Yes, yes, yes, yes.

Investigator: This year you've also done more than 500 cases, up to now?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Oh, then it seems more than last year!

Nurse: Eh, yes, yes, yes.

Investigator: Oh, you cannot do 1,000 cases. I guess it cannot reach 1,000, right.

Nurse: Uh, it can't, can't be!

Investigator: Then about 700 or 800? 700 or 800 cases is about right?

Nurse: No, we can't, but maybe close. Now it's December, we've already done almost this many.

Investigator: Eh, so you say already over 600 cases?

Nurse: Ah!

Investigator: Ah, then you still can do that many. So a week before when they can do the surgery, if it can be done. I will ask him (the patient) to come over and do a checkup. I've heard about Wang Jianli.

Nurse: You have to contact Director Wang Jianli.

Investigator: Because I know that Wang Jianli leads a team. Who else ... another one is Liu Hang, who leads a group, two groups?

Nurse: Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes.

Investigator: Eh, eh. The kidney transplantation department has just these two groups? Either looking for Wang Jianli or Liu Hang, both will do?

Nurse: Yes, yes, right, right.

Investigator: Oh, they each work by himself, haha.

Nurse: Right. They work independently.

Investigator: I still want to ask you, the kidney sources are usually, eh, usually healthy?

Nurse: Eh, all should be. You'd better ask them, because we are not clear about this.

Investigator: Eh, ok, ok, ok, ok. That is fine then!

Nurse: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

Investigator: So that is it. I will contact him, ok?

Nurse: Yeah.

Investigator: Yeah. OK.

Nurse: Yeah.

Investigator: Yeah, goodbye.
