2. [Investigator: If the organs are from donation, are there enough people to donate locally?] Yang: We definitely have many [donated organs]. There are a lot of donated [organs]. We supply [organs to] the entire China.

Phone Investigation Recording

Investigator: Hello. Is this President Yang Ming of the No.181 Hospital?

Yang Ming: Hello, who is calling?

Investigator: Hello! I am a patient's cousin. Professor Liu Xiangde talked with him. He wondered why he should come [here] to do [the organ transplant], since he is in Sichuan, which is far away. He doubted this. I just want to confirm with you. Is that true?

Professor Liu Xiangde of the Third Military Medical University would come here to do the liver transplantation operation [for him]?

Yang Ming: When? Where are you from?

Investigator: Professor Liu Xiangde said that he would come here, if we want to do the organ transplantation operation. Is that true?

Yang Ming: Yeah, yeah. He will follow [you] to come here.

Investigator: Oh, he would follow [us] here. Why do you have more donors than the Third Military Medical University?

Yang Ming: We do organ donations, OK?

Investigator: I know. Could we use the previous type of donors?

Yang: What? Previous donors?

Investigator: That is...[the type you used] before they disallowed the use of organs from executed prisoners.

Yang: No, we don't use organs from executed prisoners anymore.

Investigator: You used that kind before, right? Now can't we use those? Not even a few of them?

Yang: Now it is not allowed to use them.

Investigator: Since which year the use of them has become illegal? I didn't hear anything about that.

Yang: Several years ago. About two or three years ago.

Investigator: Oh. Two or three years ago. Now I...

Yang: Now the organs are from brain-dead people.

Investigator: Only from brain-dead people, right?

Yang: Brain-dead or cardiac dead people, now.

Investigator: There are so many donors here. There are many transplantation operations here. If the organs are from donation, are there enough people to donate locally?

Yang: We definitely have many [donated organs]. There are a lot of donated [organs]. We supply [organs to] the entire China.

Investigator: You mean you have many donations in this province?

Yang: Yes, yes, yes, okay?

Investigator: You do a good job in our province, right?

Yang: Yes, yes.

Investigator: The previous President Xiang has retired, right?

Yang: Yes.

Investigator: We live close to the No. 309 [Hospital].

Yang: The No. 309 [Hospital]?

Investigator: We live close to them.

Yang: Isn't Cai Ming working in the No. 309 Hospital?

Investigator: Yeah, and Shi Bingyi is also there.

Yang: Shi Bingyi and Cai Ming are both there.
